

UNDERSTANDING OF THE WORLD — DC TWT

Recycling
Seashore food chain
Rock Pools- finding out which creatures live in rock pools.
The Sea- animals that live in the sea, thinking about how the sea moves

PERSONAL SOCIAL AND EMOTIONAL DEVELOPMENT

Sharing a shell - sharing
The snail and the whale - helping others
Tiddler - truth and telling tales

POSSIBLE PROVOCATIONS

Why do crabs have shells?
What creatures live in the sea?
How can we help look after beaches?
What creatures live in a rock pool?
Are all beaches the same?
What do all beaches have in common?
How do we experience the seaside?
How did people experience the seaside in the past?
Pirates - maps

LITERACY, COMMUNICATION AND LANGUAGE - LAUS

Text Types
Recount of our experiences at the beach and findings
Postcards
Description of a sea creature/ Non-chronological report
Retell
Instructions
Message in a bottle
Stories to Explore
Author of the half term: Julia Donaldson
The Snail And The Whale
Tiddler
Sharing A Shell
The Night Pirates
The Lighthouse Keepers Lunch
The Snorgh and The Sailor

PHYSICAL DEVELOPMENT

Can we make a sandwich for the lighthouse keeper?

Multi-Skills
Sprinting, balancing, jumping, target throwing, obstacle race, relay,

MATHS LINKS

Patterns
Shapes
Measurement
Comparing and ordering
Basic coordinate work

Who lives in a rockpool?

ENGAGE

Teesmouth Field Centre Beach Trip

EXPRESSIVE ARTS AND DESIGN - M&M BI

Roleplay - ice cream parlour and travel agents/ beach hut (post cards, booking forms, brochures).

Creating sea pictures through art materials and different techniques

Beach Art- inspired by Andy Goldsworthy.

VOCABULARY

Whelk shell, crab, periwinkle, anemones, rockpool, starfish, jelly fish, razor, seahorse, puffer fish, ship, sand castle, clown fish, seagull, waves, crashing, sand, recycle, litter, earth, plastic, reuse, reduce, litter picker, map, holiday, destination, aeroplane, repeating pattern, millilitres, litres, sprint, run, jog, walk, over, under, across, in front, behind, pass, throw, chest pass, target, obstacle, jump.