

Harvest

Stories to Explore/PSED

What the Ladybird Heard – Julia Donaldson - We need to follow rules to keep safe and show respect
Supertato – Paul Linnet and Sue Hendra
Farmer Duck – Martin Waddell - We can feel different emotions and talk about them
Enormous Turnip
Brush Your Teeth Please – Jean Pidgeon - It is important to look after our teeth by brushing them twice a day for two minutes
Pink is for Boys – Robb Pearlman - Everyone likes different things
I Will Not Ever Never Eat a Tomato – Lauren Child - It is good to try new things even if I am unsure

Author – the person who has written the book.

Illustrator – the person who has drawn the pictures for the book

Blurb - a short description of a book

Title - the name of a book

Spine - The side of the book where the pages are joined.

Fiction book – is a story book that has been created by a person's imagination.

Non-fiction book – A book that is written using real facts

Expressive Arts and Design

Vocabulary

Sketch, pencil, dark/light, outline, leaves, petals, soft/hard, curved straight, shape

Key Knowledge

I can draw fruit, vegetables and plants by creating closed shapes with continuous lines
I can press hard to create a dark line
I can press soft to create a light line.

Nursery Rhymes

Humpty Dumpty
I'm a little teapot
Five little men in a flying saucer
Little Boo Peep
1,2,3,4,5 once I caught a fish alive

Additional songs linked to topic:

Big, Red, Combine Harvester
Old Macdonald Had a Farm
If You're Happy and You Know It
Find a Little Seed

Understanding the World

Science

Vocabulary

plant, grow, seed, stem, leaves, roots, harvest, fruit, vegetable, picking, seeding, flooding, crops, combine harvester

Key Knowledge

A plant starts off as a seed. The seed then grows a stem, leaves and roots into a fully grown plant

Harvests are collected by combine harvesters, picking them, seeding and flooding fields

We are harvested crops to make meals such as soup

Geography

Vocabulary

Hartlepool, town, village, houses, buildings, streets, roads, busy, map

Key Vocabulary

A map is a drawing of a place to show us where things are

My school is in Elwick

A town is larger and busier than a village. It has more roads, people, streets, buildings and houses.

My street name is ... My house number is ...

Religious Education – People, Culture and Communities

Harvest

Key Knowledge

Harvest is gathering the crops and food that has grown from the farms.

Harvest is about helping those in need.

Harvest is a special time for Christians.

Christians say thank you to God for harvest.

Christians help people who have less than us.

Christians celebrate harvest with a special service.

Christians believe God created the world.

Key Vocabulary

God, created, Christians, harvest, thank you, prayer

