

Topic:
The conventions of manners and courtesy.

New Vocabulary

manners	respectful behaviour
courtesy	good manners
patiently	to be calm when waiting

PSHE & RHE Cycle A Spring Term 1 EYFS

New Knowledge

We say thank you when someone helps us or gives us something.

We say please when we want something to be polite.

We take turns in queues; this means we wait patiently until it is our turn.

Following rules is important as it shows courtesy and respect to others.

We can express our feelings politely by taking turns and listening to others before speaking.

Focusing on giving people attention and responding appropriately helps when completing activities.

