Rules are important because they keep us safe. We know what our school rules are and can give examples of how we follow them.

Sometimes we have different feelings, for example being happy, sad, upset, worried or nervous. Others might feel different to me.

If someone doesn't listen to me, I can say no or stop. I can talk to a trusted adult.

Most friendships have up and downs and these can often be worked through.

Working together (by taking turns) helps to make good teamwork.

Being a really good friend is listening to others, talking nicely to others and taking turns. This is kind and shows friendly manners. It can also help to work out problems with a friend.
