Reading Comprehension

Emperor Penguins

Do you want to be an expert on emperor penguins? Yes? Then read on to find out more.

Habitat

Emperor Penguins are large birds who live in Antarctica. They are warm blooded and they can survive in extremely cold temperatures. Baby penguins start life on their father's feet.

Appearance

Emperor penguins are the largest of all the penguins. They can grow up to the height of a 7 year old child. What a tall bird! Adult penguins are mainly black and white with some yellow on their necks. The babies are grey and fluffy but when they grow up their fur turns into feathers.

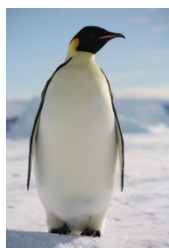

Diet

Penguins eat fish, krill and squid. Mother penguins hunt for food for their babies. Did you know that mother penguins eat up their food and spit it into their babies' mouths? How strange!

Threats

Penguins are hunted by predators like killer whales, seals and great white sharks. In some parts of Antarctica penguins are finding it difficult to survive because there is not enough fish for them to eat.
