

Colour

Understanding The World

The Natural World (Science)- SE led - What bubbles can you make?

Key Vocabulary

Bubble, Soap film, bubble mixture, bubble wand, blow, air.

Key Knowledge

A bubble is air wrapped up in a soapy film.
Soap film is made from soap and water.
You blow through a bubble wand to make a bubble.
Bubbles can be lots of different sizes.
The bigger the hole in the bubble wand the bigger the bubble.

History- Celebrations

Key Vocabulary – celebrate, birthday, christening, wedding, Christmas, New Year, Proud, celebration.

Key Knowledge-

We celebrate lots of different things at home and in school.
We can celebrate a birth, birthdays, christenings, weddings and key events like Christmas and New Year.
We celebrate when we win a game, are proud of what we have done or are proud of our friends.
When we celebrate, we can use candles, flowers, special clothes and special foods as part of the celebration.

Computing

Key Vocabulary

Computer, laptop, mouse, mouse pad, move, click, cursor, keyboard, letters, numbers, symbols, log in, log out

Key Knowledge

A computer has a keyboard and a mouse or mouse pad.
A keyboard has letters, numbers and symbols on it and I can press them.
A cursor can be moved by using our hand or finger to move the mouse. We can click the mouse to choose something.
We need to log into something to use it.
We need to log out of something so nobody else can use our accounts (link to e-safety).

Religious Education - RHE: The importance of respecting others - British values: Respect & tolerance

Key Vocabulary

Mosque, Kippah, Synagogue

Key Knowledge

Muslims go to Mosques to pray. Services are held everyday. The most important one is on a Saturday.
Before worship Muslims take their shoes off and wash before entering the main hall.
Mosques have carpets with individual prayer mats or Muslims take their own mat

Expressive Arts and Design

Observational Drawing and Painting

Key Vocabulary

Observe, draw, paint, colour, powder, water, add

Key Knowledge

To draw something, we need to observe it closely.
We can draw something by closed shapes and lines.

We can use powder paint and water colours to paint colour onto a picture.
We need to add water to powder paint and water colours.
We need to observe the object closely to know what

Nursery Rhymes

1. Incy Wincy Spider
2. Baa Baa Black Sheep
3. Mary had a little lamb
4. Old Macdonald
5. Dingle dangle scarecrow

Performance Poetry

1. I Have a Little Frog
2. Dance
3. Pitter Patter
4. Sliced Bread
5. A Little Shell

The children want to know more about...

Baby Animals

Child-led lines of enquiry

Do all animals hatch from an egg like our chicks?
What baby animals can you find on a farm?
What are baby cows, horses and pigs called?

Personal, Social and Emotional

PSHE – We are all different

The Lion inside or the Koala who could - Racheal Bright

Key Vocabulary

Difference, special, unique, like, dislike.

Key Knowledge

We are all different and it is good to celebrate our differences.
People can be different in lots of ways:
What we look like.
What we like to do; our hobbies.
Where and who we live with.
Where we were born/where we are from.

Physical Development

Balance bikes/target work

Key Vocabulary

Ride, towards, target, aim, steer, direction, left, right, turn, control

Key Knowledge

I can ride towards a target on a balance bike.
To ride towards a target, I need to steer in the right direction
To steer the bike, I need to use the handle bars.
To turn left, I need to steer left.
To turn right, I need to steer right.

Stories To Explore

Elmer by David Mckee
This Little Trailblazer by Joan Holub
Pink is for boys Robb Pearlman
The Gingerbread Man
Barbara Throws a Wobbler by Barbara Thon

